Terms & Conditions

The campaign is organised by the Dungog District Chamber of Commerce Inc. and Dungog Shire Council as part of the NSW Department of Industry Small Business Month. All the information on how to enter the competition forms part of the competition conditions. Entry into the competition is deemed an acceptance of the terms and conditions.

Competition Entry

Entry into the Dungog Shire 'Live. Love. Shop Local' Campaign is open to anyone who shops at any of the participating businesses (see list below). To enter, simply collect $100 worth of receipts from participating businesses, place the receipts in an official entry envelope, complete your details on the front of the envelope and place into an entry box at a participating business. Note: if your receipt is for the purchase of good or services worth more than $100, you are eligible for one entry only. e.g. electrical work worth $1200 equals one entry.

General Terms & Conditions

The competition opens on Monday 1 October and runs until Monday 29 October. The competition draw will take place on Wednesday 31 October at 5pm. The envelopes drawn out will be checked for compliance with the terms and conditions. The winners (if not at the draw) will be contacted by phone. Please note there are no restrictions in relation to the number of entries submitted.

The campaign is open to anyone who purchases goods at participating stores across Dungog Shire. Owners and their immediate families of participating businesses however, are not permitted to enter using receipts from the businesses they work for. The judge's decision is final and no correspondence will be entered into. The judge being the Dungog District Chamber of Commerce President. The organisers accept no responsibility whatsoever for late, misplaced, lost or ineligible entries. Envelopes must be placed in an entry box prior to 5pm on Monday 29 October. The organisers make no representations or warranties as to the quality, suitability, or merchantability of any purchase made with the prizes. To the extent permitted by law, the organisers are not liable for any loss or damage whatsoever which is suffered (including, but not limited to, direct or consequential loss) or for any personal injury (including death) suffered or sustained in connection with entry into the competition or acceptance of the prizes. This paragraph is not intended to exclude any liability, which cannot not be excluded under Australian consumer protection laws.
